

YAKISHIME

Earth Metamorphosis

From tea bowls to objets d'art, experience Japanese yakishime ceramics dating from the twelfth century, on display for the first time in Nashville!

Watkins College of Art
Brownlee O. Currey, Jr. Gallery
2298 Rosa L Parks Blvd, Nashville

Free admission

Free parking

Monday - Friday, 9AM - 8PM

Saturday, 10AM - 4PM

Sunday, 2PM - 4PM

6.5.2017 -
6.30.2017

top image: Kyoko Tokumaru, Shukusuijima – The blessing water island bottom (l-r): Yuho Kaneshige, tea bowl; Masahiko Ichino, Tamba Dokai; Koichi Uchida, tea bowl; Artist unknown, jar (Momoyama period)

Presented by the Consulate-General of Japan in Nashville in partnership with the Japan Foundation and Watkins College of Art.

Watkins.
College of Art